

BEHIND
CLOSED
DOORS

Shedding Light on Domestic Violence

Wednesday, October 26 | 7 PM
Virtual

Join Darlene Reda, Deputy Director, Westchester County Office for Women, to learn about the alarming reality of domestic violence that is concealed behind closed doors, where only the occupants know of its existence.

Learn about the complex dynamics underlying domestic violence and abuse, its prevalence in our Westchester communities, County initiatives to address family violence, how to support someone who is experiencing domestic violence or abuse and resources to turn to for help.

Registration required.

Scan code, visit library website or call 914-721-8225 to register.

Greenburgh Public Library

George Latimer
Westchester County Executive

